CLINT HILSGEN

Clint Hilsgen joined TruStone Financial's commercial lending team in 2020, bringing more than a decade of experience in the lending and real estate industry. Clint partners with investors, capital markets, brokers and TruStone members to fulfill their commercial lending needs.

Clint's background includes managing a Relationship Lending department, enhancing and expanding relationships with brokers nationwide and focusing on business growth and development. He has been awarded for his accomplishments and has presented at National Sales Conferences. He aims to continue developing trusted and effective relationships, guiding all borrowers through the commercial lending process. Clint's professional affiliations include International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC) and Minnesota Commercial Association of Real Estate (MNCAR).

Clint earned his bachelor's degree in finance from St. Cloud State University. He enjoys volunteering with Helping Paws, a non-profit that helps veterans and individuals with special needs gain further independence and quality of life through the use of assistance dogs.
